

Programme for Arts-based Research (PEEK)

Differences from the “General Principles of the Decision-Making Procedure”

Submission

In principle, as stated in the “General Principles of the Decision-Making Procedure.” Applications for PEEK<sup>1</sup> can be submitted within the annual call according to the latest “Application Guidelines for the Programme for Arts-based Research (PEEK).”

Minimum number of reviews

In principle, as stated in the “General Principles of the Decision-Making Procedure.”

Applications can be recommended for rejection on the basis of fewer reviews than would be required for approval within the respective funding programme if the review(s) received already clearly indicate(s) that the application cannot be approved. In such cases, the PEEK Board must agree to reject the application.

Decision and granting of funding

In principle, as stated in the “General Principles of the Decision-Making Procedure.” Decisions on funding will be taken by the FWF Board on the basis of the PEEK Board’s recommendations.

---

<sup>1</sup> The acronym PEEK is derived from the German title “Programm zur Entwicklung und Erschließung der Künste.”